PSYCHOTHERAPY AGREEMENT

PSYCHOTHERAPY

Psychotherapy varies depending on the personalities of the therapist and patient, and the problems being addressed. Often it involves difficult aspects of life and experiencing uncomfortable feelings. Beneficial results depend on an active effort on your part.

I may use different methods in therapy. Generally my approach invites your close attention to, and the expression of, your internal experience including thoughts, feelings, and recollections of personal history. We will also explore your perceptions of the world around you. Together we will identify ways that you are behaving and ways that you interact with your world, both those that serve you and those that limit you or create problems.

I will invite you to explore by talking about personal material, by expressing behaviors (some apparent and some out of your awareness), and by experimenting with new behaviors. The degree to which the therapy is successful often depends on your willingness to practice what is experienced in therapy in your daily life. The intent of this therapy is to help you become a more effective participant in life.

Therapy is a unique learning experience we both create. I provide expertise in recognizing clinically important material and structuring meaningful therapeutic opportunities. You are responsible for saying what is important to you, what you have come to therapy to address, and deciding for yourself what is useful. You always have the right, in fact it is important for you, to raise your own needs and any objections or reservations you may have about what we do. It is not my job to tell you what to do. It is your job to make your own decision about what is best for your life.

There are times, despite the best efforts of both the client and the therapist, that the therapy is not helpful. Sometimes a particular therapist or therapeutic approach is simply not a good match. If at any time you feel your therapy with me is not satisfactory, please let me know. If we are unable to make suitable adjustments I will make every effort to locate another therapist for you.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND PERSONAL INFORMATION

The law protects the privacy of all communication between a patient and therapist and dictates how I manage your personal information. Please read the notice entitled "Your Personal Information" about the policies and limitations regarding your privacy.

APPOINTMENTS

Unless otherwise arranged, therapy sessions are scheduled for 50 minutes. Together we will agree on our frequency of meeting. Weekly or every other week are common frequencies, especially at the beginning of therapy.

A scheduled appointment means I reserve time only for you. If you miss your appointment or cancel with less than 24 hours notice, you will be billed according to the scheduled fee before another appointment can be scheduled. Generally, your insurance company does not pay this fee you are responsible for this payment.

CONTACTING ME

Messages can be left for me at the office number of (480) 261-5015. Unless we have specifically made other arrangements, I do not provide on-call phone or emergency sessions. In an emergency contact 911, a hospital emergency room, or the EMPACT Crisis Hotline at (480) 784-1500. If you feel you require special support between our scheduled sessions, please discuss these needs with me.

FINANCIAL TERMS

- Unless otherwise arranged, my fee for an initial consultation is $125. The fee for subsequent appointments is $95 for individual sessions and for other multiple participants, parent consultations are billed at $45. Services for time periods other than a usual appointment are charged proportionally at $95/hour. Examples include report writing, phone conversations beyond a few minutes, or consulting with others at your request.
- Upon verification of insurance coverage and policy limits, your insurance carrier will be billed for your sessions. I will be paid directly by the carrier and you will be responsible for any deductibles and co-payments. If your insurance plan determines you are not eligible, you are responsible for full payment at the fee schedule above.
- Payment arrangements should be finalized at your first visit.
- In the event of default of payment, the balance is due in full. You will be responsible for any reasonable court costs, attorney fees, and/or collection fees incurred.

LIMITS OF COVERAGE, APPEALS, AND GRIEVANCES

It can be difficult to determine health plan coverage. Some require authorization before they pay and may limit the number of visits. You have the right to request reconsideration if visits are denied certification. You would appeal through me and have no risk in doing so. If you continue without authorization and your appeal is denied, you will be responsible for payment of sessions not approved. You may make a complaint to me about any aspect of treatment. If not satisfied, you may submit a grievance to your insurance carrier.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

This document outlines my office policies related to use of Social Media. Please read it to understand how I conduct myself on the Internet as a mental health professional and how you can expect me to respond to various interactions that may occur between us on the Internet. If you have any questions about anything within this document, I encourage you to bring them up when we meet. As new technology develops and the Internet changes, there may be times when I need to update this policy. If I do so, I will notify you in writing of any policy changes and make sure you have a copy of the updated policy

Friending -I do not accept friend or contact requests from current or former clients on any social networking site (Facebook, LinkedIn, etc). I believe that adding clients as friends or contacts on these sites can compromise your confidentiality and our respective privacy. It may also blur the boundaries of our therapeutic relationship. If you have questions about this, please bring them up when we meet and we can talk more about it.

Interacting- Please do not use SMS (mobile phone text messaging) or messaging on Social Networking sites such as Twitter, Facebook, or LinkedIn to contact me. These sites are not secure and I may not read these messages in a timely fashion. Do not use Wall postings, @replies, or other means of engaging with me in public online if we have an already established client/therapist relationship. Engaging with me this way could compromise your confidentiality. It may also create the possibility that these exchanges become a part of your legal medical record and will need to be documented and archived in your chart. If you need to contact me between sessions, the best way to do so is by directly calling the front desk at 480-261-5015 or email me directly for quick, administrative issues such as changing appointment times.

PARTICIPATION IN LITIGATION:

I will not voluntarily participate in any litigation, or custody dispute in which client and another individual, or entity, are parties. I have a policy of not communicating with client's attorney and will generally not write or sign letters, reports, declarations, or affidavits to be used in a legal matter unless agreed upon at beginning of the therapeutic relationship. I will generally not provide records or testimony unless compelled to do so. Should I be subpoenaed, or ordered by a court of law, to appear as a witness in an action involving a client, client agrees to reimburse me for any time spent for preparation, travel, or other time in which I have made myself available for such an appearance at my usual and customary hourly rate of $150.00/hour.

ADOLESCENT CONSENT AND PARENT AGREEMENT TO RESPECT PRIVACY

What to expect:

The purpose of meeting with a therapist is to get help with problems in your life that are bothering you or that are keeping you from being successful in important areas of your life. You may be here because you wanted to talk to a counselor or therapist about these problems. Or, you may be here because your parent, guardian, doctor or teacher had concerns about you. When we meet, we will discuss these problems. I will ask questions, listen to you and suggest a plan for improving these problems. It is important that you feel comfortable talking to me about the issues that are bothering you. Sometimes these issues will include things you don't want your parents or guardians to know about. For most people, knowing that what they say will be kept private helps them feel more comfortable and have more trust in their counselor or therapist. Privacy, also called confidentiality, is an important and necessary part of good counseling.

As a general rule, I will keep the information you share with me in our sessions confidential, unless I have your written consent to disclose certain information. There are, however, important exceptions to this rule that are important for you to understand before you share personal information with me in a therapy session. In some situations, I am required by law or by the guidelines of my profession to disclose information whether or not I have your permission. I have listed some of these situations below.

Confidentiality cannot be maintained when:

- >You tell me you plan to cause serious harm or death to yourself, and I believe you have the intent and ability to carry out this threat in the very near future. I must take steps to inform a parent or guardian of what you have told me and how serious I believe this threat to be. I must make sure that you are protected from harming yourself.
- > You tell me you plan to cause serious harm or death to someone else who can be identified, and I believe you have the intent and ability to carry out this threat in the very near future. In this situation, I must inform your parent or guardian, and I must inform the person who you intend to harm.
- >You are doing things that could cause serious harm to you or someone else, even if you do not intend to harm yourself or another person. In these situations, I will need to use my professional judgment to decide whether a parent or guardian should be informed.
- >You tell me you are being abused-physically, sexually or emotionally-or that you have been abused in the past. In this situation, I am required by law to report the abuse to the Arizona Department of Economic Security.

Initials:

D.O.B:

Revised 9/28/18

>You are involved in a court case and a request is made for information about your counseling or therapy. If this happens, I will not disclose information without your written agreement unless the court requires me to. I will do all I can within the law to protect your confidentiality, and if I am required to disclose information to the court, I will inform you that this is happening.

Communicating with your parent(s) or guardian(s):

Except for situations such as those mentioned above, I will not tell your parent or guardian specific things you share with me in our private therapy sessions. This includes activities and behavior that your parent/guardian would not approve of — or would be upset by — but that do not put you at risk of serious and immediate harm. However, if your risk-taking behavior becomes more serious, then I will need to use my professional judgment to decide whether you are in serious and immediate danger of being harmed. If I feel that you are in such danger, I will communicate this information to your parent or guardian.

Example: If you tell me that you have tried alcohol at a few parties, I would keep this information confidential. If you tell me that you are drinking and driving or that you are a passenger in a car with a driver who is drunk, I would not keep this information confidential from your parent/guardian. If you tell me, or if I believe based on things you've told me, that you are addicted to alcohol, I would not keep this information confidential.

Example: If you tell me that you are having protected sex with a boyfriend or girlfriend, I would keep this information confidential. If you tell me that, on several occasions, you have engaged in unprotected sex with people you do not know or in unsafe situations, I will not keep this information confidential. You can always ask me questions about the types of information I would disclose. You can ask in the form of “hypothetical situations,” in other words: “If someone told you that they were doing _____, would you tell their parents?”

Even if I have agreed to keep information confidential – to not tell your parent or guardian – I may believe that it is important for them to know what is going on in your life. In these situations, I will encourage you to tell your parent/guardian and will help you find the best way to tell them. Also, when meeting with your parents, I may sometimes describe problems in general terms, without using specifics, in order to help them know how to be more helpful to you.

Communicating with other adults:

School: I will not share any information with your school unless I have your permission and permission from your parent or guardian. Sometimes I may request to speak to someone at your school to find out how things are going for you. Also, it may be helpful in some situations for me to give suggestions to your teacher or counselor at school. If I want to contact your school, or if someone at your school wants to contact me, I will discuss it with you and ask for your written permission. A very unlikely situation might come up in which I do not have your permission but both I and your parent or guardian believe that it is very important for me to be able to share certain information with someone at your school. In this situation, I will use my professional judgment to decide whether to share any information.

Initials:

D.O.B:

Revised 9/28/18

Doctors: Sometimes your doctor and I may need to work together; for example, if you need to take medication in addition to seeing a counselor or therapist. I will get your written permission and permission from your parent/guardian in advance to share information with your doctor. The only time I will share information with your doctor even if I don't have your permission is if you are doing something that puts you at risk for serious and immediate physical/medical harm.

Signing below indicates that you have reviewed the policies described above and understand the limits to confidentiality. If you have any questions as we progress with therapy, you can ask your therapist at any time.

-  I will refrain from requesting detailed information about individual therapy sessions with my child. I understand that I will be provided with periodic updates about general progress, and/or may be asked to participate in therapy sessions as needed.

Although I know I have the legal right to request written records/session notes since my child is a minor, I agree NOT to request these records in order to respect the confidentiality of my adolescent's treatment.

I understand that I will be informed about situations that could endanger my child. I know this decision to breach confidentiality in these circumstances is up to the therapist's professional judgment and may sometimes be made in confidential consultation with her consultant/supervisor.

Your Personal Information with

Erica Tatum-Sheade, LMSW

Please read this notice describing how I handle information about you in compliance with state and federal law, and describing your access to this information.

I. General Consent

With your signature on the Psychotherapy Agreement, you give me your general consent for treatment, which includes your permission for me to use or disclose information (info) about you for the purposes of payment, treatment, and operations.

Some clarifications:

Information (Info)	means information I keep that could identify you.
Treatment	means when I provide, coordinate, or manage your care. This includes activities such as consulting with your physician or another treatment professional. If I choose to consult with a colleague regarding your case, I do not reveal your identity and will note these consultations in your record.
Payment	means when I disclose your info to obtain reimbursement, such as to your health insurer to determine coverage or for payment.
Operations	refers to the activities of operating my practice and business-related matters. My office manager, and my accountant on very rare occasions, may have limited access to your info . Both have been trained about protecting your privacy.
Use	means using your info only within my office.
Disclose	means providing your info to others outside of my office.
Record	refers to the file of all the information I keep for managing your therapy except for psychotherapy notes . Examples include the intake paperwork, billing and insurance documents, a diagnosis, and goals for treatment.
Psychotherapy Notes	refers to notes I have made about our conversations for my own use in your treatment. I keep these notes separate from your record and under greater protection.

II. Authorization

An authorization is your signed, written permission which permits only specific disclosures above and beyond the general consent. When I am asked for info for purposes outside of payment, treatment, or operations, I will obtain an authorization before releasing this information from your record or from my psychotherapy notes. You may revoke an authorization at any time, provided your revocation is in writing. However, you may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) I have relied on it; or (2) it was obtained as a condition for insurance coverage and law gives the insurer the right to contest the claim. Insurance companies may request info from your record but not from psychotherapy notes without your authorization.

III. Uses and Disclosures Without Consent or Authorization

I may use or disclose your info without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

Child Abuse. I am required to report to the appropriate authorities when I have reasonable grounds to believe that a minor is or has been the victim of neglect or physical and/or sexual abuse.

Adult and Domestic Abuse. If I have the responsibility for the care of an incapacitated or vulnerable adult, I am required to report to authorities when I have a reasonable basis to believe that abuse or neglect has occurred or that exploitation of the adult's property has occurred.

Health Oversight Activities. If the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners is conducting an investigation, I may be required to disclose your info to them.

Judicial and Administrative Proceedings. If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for records and/or information about our work together, such information is privileged under state law and I will not release it without your written authorization, or that of your legally appointed representative, or a court order. If a patient files a complaint or lawsuit against me, I may disclose relevant info in order to defend myself.

Serious Threat to Health or Safety. If you communicate to me an explicit threat of imminent serious physical harm or death to a clearly identifiable victim (or victims) and I believe you have the intent and ability to carry out such a threat, I have a duty to take reasonable precautions to prevent the harm from occurring. This may include disclosing info to the potential victim and/or to the police, and to initiate the appropriate hospitalization procedures. If I believe that there is an imminent risk that you will inflict serious harm on yourself, I may disclose info in order to protect you.

Worker's Compensation. I may disclose your info as authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to worker's compensation or other similar programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illnesses.

IV. Your Rights and My Duties

- Your right* to request restrictions on my uses and disclosures of your info. However, I am not required to agree to it.
- Your right* to request and receive confidential info by alternative means and locations. For example, if you want your bill sent to another address so that a family member will not know that you're seeing me.
- Your right* to inspect or receive a copy of your record as long as I am keeping one. There are some circumstances under which I may deny this, and in some cases you may have the denial reviewed. If you'd like, I will discuss these details with you.
- Your right* to request to see my psychotherapy notes. However, I am not obligated to agree to it.
- Your right* to request a change to your record as long as I am keeping one. I may deny this request. If you'd like, I will discuss these details with you.
- Your right* to receive documentation of disclosures of your info. If you'd like, I will discuss these details with you.
- Your right* to receive paper copies of this notice and of any of our agreements.
- Your right* to fully discuss with me any questions or concerns you have regarding confidentiality and your personal information.
- My duty* by law to maintain the privacy of your info and to provide this notice of my policies and procedures for doing so.
- My duty* to abide by these terms regarding your info. I do have the right to change privacy policies if I notify you.
- My duty* that if I revise my info policies and procedures, to provide you a revised notice. I will do this at one of our regular appointments or by mail.

V. Complaints

If you are concerned that I have violated your privacy rights, or you disagree with my decision about access to your record, please let me know. If you feel unsatisfied with our resolution or want further input you may contact the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners. I can provide you with the contact information upon request.

VI. Minors and Parents

Patients under 18 years of age who are not emancipated and their parents should be aware that the law may allow parents to examine their child's record. Because privacy in psychotherapy is often crucial to successful progress, particularly with teenagers, it is sometimes my policy to request an agreement from parents that they give up their access. If they agree, during treatment I will provide them only with general information about the progress of the child's treatment, and his/her attendance at scheduled sessions. I will also provide parents with a summary of their child's treatment when it is complete. Any other communication will require the child's authorization, unless I feel that the child is in danger or presents a danger to someone else. In that case, I will notify the parent(s) of my concern. Before giving parents any info, I will discuss the matter with the child, if possible, and do my best to handle objections that he/she may have.

VII. Minimum Necessary Requirement

Under circumstances of disclosure of your info I will make every effort to release only the minimum info about you that is necessary for the requested purpose. Be aware that your contract with your health insurance company requires that I provide it with info about you, including a clinical diagnosis. Sometimes I am required to provide treatment plans, summaries, or the entire record. This info will become part of the insurance company's files. Although they claim to keep it confidential, I have no control over your information once they have it. I will provide you with a copy of any report I submit if you request it. Your insurance company cannot require access to my psychotherapy notes as a condition of coverage.

VIII. Record Storage, Access, and Disposition

While you are an active client, your record and my psychotherapy notes are kept in locked storage at my office. Once you are inactive as a client these records are transferred to a secure storage site separate from my office. The records will be maintained and securely stored for seven years from the date of and last activity as a client. After seven years, your record and my psychotherapy notes will be destroyed using a commercial shredding company licensed to properly handle secure confidential records.

If you wish to access your record or you require information from your record, contact me, Erica Tatum-Sheade, LMSW. If you do not know how to find me, information for contacting me or an alternate Custodian of Records is on file with the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners, 3443 North Central, Suite 1700, Phoenix, AZ 85012; phone (602) 542-1882.
